Circle ten S blend words in the following passage and then write them in the space provided with the correct spelling. Circle the consonant blend in the words:

Marcus and his staff were driving a car when they got stuck in a storm. They stopped their car and waited under a tree. They saw a stable near the tree and thought to take shelter in it. When they went there they found nothing but a small table with a steel top. So, they sat there for a while. They spent their time talking. Then when the wind became normal, Marcus smiled. They returned to their home soon.
